

Year 5 Spelling and reading homework

Set - Friday 6th July to be returned 11.7.18

Spelling

Can you try to investigate words which are homophones- they sound the same but are spelt differently and have a different meaning?

Here are some examples;
aisle: a gangway between seats (in a church, train, plane).
isle: an island.
aloud: out loud.
allowed: permitted.
affect: usually a verb (e.g. The weather may affect our plans).
effect: usually a noun

Maths homework

This week there is no maths homework as we have had some of our end of year tests. Therefore, we would like them to either rest or revise!

Year 5 Reading Journal homework

This week we are reading Chapter 11 and recording our synopsis into our journals and recording down 5 unfamiliar words into our books. The children can write the definitions in at school when we are examining the Chapters in class.

This is the last chapter and our last reading journal homework. On behalf of the Year 5 team, thank you for all your support with your child's reading! Enjoy the summer and keep reading!
